

I believe stations that use the public air waves need to be held to fair standards of equal time, and not be allowed to pretend that political advertising is a news broadcast. The plans of Sinclair Broadcasting to present an anti-Kerry ad as if it were news seem to me to be clear violations of FCC equal time provisions. I believe the FCC should not renew licenses of stations that air the anti-Kerry message without giving equal time to Kerry to respond.